The Brooklyn police received a general alarm this morning to look for three men, who are wanted for a brutal assault and highway robbery com: uted on Dr. William Davis and Camille D'Arville was accorded a oyle, of 55 Windsor pt ce.

A watchman in the employ of the Kings County Oil Works, at Kingsland and Norman avenues, while making his rounds at 1 o'clock this morning found Dr. Doyle lying uncon sclous upon the sidewalk. He was badly bruised, and blood flowed from several ugly wounds in the head.

Ambulance Surgeon Gifford, who came in response to a call, found that Doyle had received a concussion of the brain and was band's Body Reinterred. NEWTOWN, L. I., Oct. 25 .- Mrs. J. Denk, of 1402 Third avenue, New York, accompanied by an undertaker, came to Newtown this morning for the purpose of having the tody of her husband disinterred from a paupers grave in St. Michael's Cemetery. Depk, who was a cigar-maker, kept a store in Third avenue, and disappeared Aug. 7 last. His wife said that when he went away from home it was his intention to collect some bills. She thinks that he must have had considerable money in his possession when he met his death. About a month ago his dead body, with a plated wound in his head, was found near St. Mighnel's Cometery. A pistol lay beside the body, and there was overy indication that the man had committed suicide.

The body was not identified at the time and was buried at the expense of the County.

Subsequently Mrs. Deak heard of the finding of the body, and when she came over to Long Island she was told that her description of her husband add not correspond with that of the man who had been buried. It was with much difficulty that she satisfied the Queens County authorities that the body was that of her husband. She fixed the identification by the clothing and articles found on the body.

As soon as she was convinced that the body was that of her husband she decided to have it removed from a pauper's grave and placed in another part of the cemetery. She says that she does not know why her husband should commit suicide, and that his death is a mystery.

Andrew W. Rothwell, single, a printer and the fourth floor of the tenement, 73 Henry street, Brooklyn, was found this morning unconscious in bed with twelve self-inflicted stab-wounds on his neck, arms and body.

He was removed to the Brooklyn City Hospital. The motive for his attempted suicide was despondency. Rothwell came from Cork, Ireland, three years ago. He has seven brothers there, who are prominent merchants.

TRIED TO TAKE THE BABY. Mrs. Bradford Resists Miss Doughty

and Her Mother. Justice Barrett, in Supreme Court, Chambers, this morning directed Court Stenogsileged agreement between Mrs. May Brud-ford and Eleanor Doughty to adopt the latter's illegitimate child, before he would render a decision on Lawyer Denslow's de murrer to Mrs. Bradford's return to the habeas corpus. While waiting for the stenographer in Part II., of the Circuit Court, Miss Doughty tried to take the baby from Mrs. Bradford, who re-to take the baby from Mrs. Bradford, who resisted her firmly but mildly.

"It's my baby, and I want it," shrieked Miss Doughty, and her mother rushed to her ald.

"It isn't yours until the Court says so," rejoined Mrs. Bradford.

Mrs. Doughty testified that Samuel S. Vreeland, the child's alleged fainer, said to her two days before the baby's birth:

'In case the baty is not destroyed I have a have good place for it. A string might be tied about its neck so tight that it wouldn't, come united. If you had the honor of your child at heart you would stick the baby in the bathtub."
